□ Hello

I'm Eimhin Rafferty

I am a Product Manager with 5+ years as a PM, prior to that I have worked for 10+ years as a Building Information Modelling expert in the Architectural Design and Construction sectors. I have lead large and successful initiatives and fostered user-centric design. I possess strong user empathy, an eye for good design, and a continuous curiosity to drive product improvements. My Architectural background gives me a meticulous attention to detail and strong problem-solving skills.
